Instead of looking at a long list of donations needed, take a look at specific projects/operations.

Non-Mission-Specific Needs - a harmonica, Men's wallets, Good condition, working natural gas stoves and dryers; Good condition refrigerators; Boxes of disposable gloves size M & XL

Operation Cover Up – Men's Clothes. Think everyday attire.

Operation Keep a Lid on It – Plastic wrap and lidded food storage containers keep the inspectors happy.

Operation Bundle Of Joy – Diapers for a newborn.

Operation Chow Time – We can always use unexpired non-perishable food.

Operation Swab the Deck – Ongoing mission. Lime-away and pumice stones keep the hard water at bay. We need mops and brooms; dollar store quality is fine. Cleaning/scouring sponges are always handy as is dish soap. Bleach should be in manageable sized containers (quart or half Operation Mess Hall – Ongoing mission. Pots, fry pans, cooking utensils, silverware, plates, cups, glasses, silverware holders, knives, coffee pots, crock pots, toasters.

Operation Move In – We need twin sheet sets. We need bedside/end tables, recliners, flat screen tvs, beds/frames (twin & full sized). The beds need mattress covers (the kind that encases the whole mattress to protect from spills and critters),

Operation Smells Like a Rose – Ongoing hygiene mission. Soap, shampoo, lotion, foot powder, tissue. The paperwork never ends; toilet paper and paper towels are always useful.

Company Clerk's Needs –Accordion files, file folders, staples and paperclips are the most needed items.

We have no need for:

Sofa beds

Trundle beds

King sized beds

CRT TVs and Monitors

Rugs

Computer Printers

VHS Tapes

We are an alcohol free facility. Please do not donate wine glasses, shot glasses, margarita sets, beer mugs, or corkscrews. Thanks!
